INDIANAPOLIS WILL STICK

Mr. Brush Reiterates the Statement that His Ball Club Will Remain Here.

Little Business Done at the League Meeting Testerday-How Gate Receipts Will Be Apportioned-Mr. Johnson Talks.

MR. BRUSH WILL NOT SELL.

He Says the Indianapolis Club Will Remain

Here in the Hoosier Capital. pecial to the Indianapolis Journal. CLEVELAND, O., March 4.-President Brush remains firm in his determination to stay in the League, and unless he changes his mind in a very short time that body will have a ten-club circuit. In fact, but little attention was paid by the base-ball enthusiasts who have been watching the proceedings to any discussion on the probability of Indianapolis retiring, for it seems to be settled that Mr. Brush's team will again represent that city in the League. "Indianapolis," says Mr. Brush, "is full of enthusiasm, and yet people ask me if I will stick. Of course I will. We have gone on in Indianapolis and arranged for a series of exhibition games. We have also put our season tickets out, and otherwise made arrangements for the coming year. The citizens of the place are very anxious that Indianapolis should stay in the League. We have a good club, and I think we shall cut a better figure this year in the race for the championship. It seems to me that the best policy on my part will be to accede to the demands of my friends, and the people generally of my city, and give Indianapolis its ball club next summer. The Frotherhood people have sold me out several times, but of course that will not bother me very nuch. I don't blame the Brotherhood for vanting to get rid of me. I presume they hink me a pretty tough customer, but that's what I'm here for. Indianapolis has always been a first-rate ball, town. proportion to our population we draw larger crowds than any other city in the country. If New York turned out as well, proportionately, as Indianapolis does, they would draw 75,000 people to every game. Our city has grown considerably during the past year, too, and this fact, together with the prospect of having a winning club in the field, ought, I think, give us some very good crowds this seagive us some very good crowds this sea-

There will be no attempt to freeze Indianapolis out. Mr. Brush has done what his associates concede he has the right to dorefuse any offer to dispose of the team. It was ramored that one or two of the Indian-apolis players had written to Mr. Brush, stating that they would not play in his team, but Mr. Brush denies it.

THE LEAGUE MEETING.

tesolution Adopted in Regard to Gate Receipts-Million-Dollar Offer Refused. CLEVELAND, O., March 4.-The opening session of the National League meeting was called to order in the Weddell House at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, with the following-named delegates present: A. H. Soden and W. H. Conant, Boston; C. A. Byrne and J. J. Doyle, Brooklyn; W. H. Nimick and A. K. Scandrett, Pittsburg; W. E. Hewitt, Washington; Harry Stern, Cincinnati; A. J. Reach, Philadelphia; A. G Spalding and James A. Hart, Chicago; John B. Day and Charles T. Dillingham, New York; John T. Brush, Indianapolis, and F. D. Robison and David Hawley, Cleveland.

Reports of committees were first called for, after which the following motion was unanimously adopted: "That the 40 per centum of gate receipts mentioned in Section 60, of the League constitution, be construed and understood to mean 20 cents per capita turn-stile count, except in the case of Philadelphia. where 10 cents per capita turn-stile count shall be paid." The next business ness in order was the presenting of communications. President N. E. Young read a letter containing an offer of $1,000,000 for the franchises and clubs of the National League, and asked what the meeting wished to do with it. Some one suggested that inasmuch as the question would probably have to be discussed at consider. probably have to be discussed at considerable length before being settled, it would be a good plan to adjourn for dinner. It was, accordingly, decided to postpone matters till 3:30 o'clock.

Instead of resuming business at 3:30, it was nearly 6 o'clock when the second session was called to order. The million-dollar offer was the first matter to come before the meeting, and it was immediately laid upon the table. Then a communication from F N. Brunell, secretary of the Brotherhood, was read. It referred to the arrangement tion to boycott all clubs playing against the Brotherhood. The communication was tabled without discussion.

The schedule committee presented the following recommendation: "That the mileage for each club be averaged and the costs computed on the basis of fourteen men, at a fixed rate per mile each. All the proceedings to ascertain such value, clubs below the average will be required to and it would have to be left to future propay an amount into the League treasury to equal the average, the clubs having paid, or the same basis, an amount exceeding the average to be reimbursed such amount at the close of the season." The recommendation was unanimously adopted.

A brief discussion of the general features of the schedule as arranged by the committee then ensued, after which the meeting adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morn-

It was rumored in the corridors of the Weddell House to-night that Washington is to sell out to Detroit, but all League men who have been approached say there is absolutely no foundation for such a story. They say that the transfer of the Washington team to Detroit would throw the circuit out of balance-putting six clubs in the West and leaving only four in the East-which is a consummation they do not wish. One of the strongest evidences of the falsity of this rumor is the fact that the Detroit people are negotiating with St. Andrew. The Rev. Charles Morris, of Boston for the transfer of pitcher Frank Evansville, who has for a long time been Knauss to the latter city. Knauss is here, and he said this evening that Manager Leadly, of Detroit, had advised him to go to Boston if a chance were offered.

Ralph Cohen, of the Columbus club, and John B. Day, of New York, had a long conference this afternoon with regard to the Lehane case. Mr. Cohen displayed several letters and affidavits showing that the Columbus club had a right to negotiate with Lehane at the time he was signed. but Mr. Day was not disposed to give up his claim to the man. When last seen Mr. Cohen was vowing vengeance upon the League. Mr. Day says he intends to let the board of arbitration settle the matter.

All talk to-day indicated that a ten-club circuit would be the result of the meeting, and unless the magnates dissemble very much there will be no dropping of unde-sirable members. President Brush, of Indianapolis, is the man who has it in his power to say whether there shall be eight or ten clubs. "If Mr. Brush would consent to retire," said one of the Eastern mag-nates, "Mr. Hewitt, of Washington, would put a reasonable price upon his team. But we don't want nine clubs, and for this reason we cannot let Washington go unless Indianapolis shows a disposition to leave also." Indianapolis has not shown much of a disposition to leave. In fact, Mr. Brush gives every evidence of being determined to remain in the fight. It is the general belief that the League will not get through here before Thursday or Friday. The work done up to this time is considered a mere beginning.

"Magnate" Johnson in a Happy Mood. CLEVELAND, O., March 4 .- One of the first magnates to make his appearance in the corridors of the Weddell House this morning was Mr. Johnson, president of the Cleveland Brotherhood club. He seemed happy, and intimated that he did not care much what the League people did. "Wait till next week," he said. "Then you'll see the greatest lot of base-ball magnates in America. The men who have made the game will be here then. I guess the League people intend to go it with ten clubs. Well, that'll be so much the better for us. The more they have, the merrier is what I say more they have, the merrier, is what I say.

Still, I don't believe the matter is settled fers from any disease of the blood.

yet by any means. I don't think there is any chance left for them to freeze Indian-apolis out, but Cleveland and Washington are still for sale. That's right. Now you remember what I say. Cleveland has the cheapest franchise in the League, and I won't be at all surprised if the magnates decide to drop these people. I met Frank Robison, president of the Cleveland League club, last night, and he bet me a case of wine that I'd never build a stand on my grounds. I'd like to bet him a hundred cases to ten that I'll have the finest stand

Refused to Leave the League. BALTIMORE, March 4.-Frank Foreman called at the Baltimore cinb's headquarters to-day. He expects to report to Thomas Loftus at Cincinnati on or about the 20th inst. Foreman said: "Last Sunday afterneon I received a visit from director Wagner, of the Philadelphia Players' club. We had a long talk. He urged me to go back with him to Philadelphia. Among other things he told me that my contract with Cincinnati was comparatively worthless, inasmuch as it gave Mr. Stern a chance to Then he offered me a very big lump of money to rejoin his team, and counted out $2,000 in bank notes and laid it on the table. He said I could have it if I would consent to go with him. I refused point blank. I told him I had a personal contract with Mr. Stern, which insured me work for three years to play ball in the summer and work in his business house in the off season. More Suits Against Players. NEW YORK, March 4.-Three new cases have been begun by the Metropolitan Exhibition Company in the Supreme Court. The defendants in the three new injunction suits are the famous pitcher, Timothy J. Keefe, fielder George Gore and second-baseman Daniel Richardson. This is but an active beginning of the suits that are contemplated against all the other members of the old New York team who have deserted. As the summonses are returnable in twenty days, these new suits are, quite likely to interfere with the club's intended tour

What Manager Barnie Will Do. BALTIMORE, March 4.-Manager Barnie, of the Baltimore Base-ball Club, says that if the management of the National League purchase the Washington club's franchise. he will organize an Atlantic association club at the capital, and back it with money subscribed by local business men.

The Y. M. C. A.'s Clubs. The Outing Club, of the Y. M. C. A., met last evening, and approved the constitution, by-laws and form of contract adopted the schedule committe, at the meeting Monday evening The clause of the contract which renders it impossible for any member of the Y. M. C. A. League to play with any other club which plays Sunday games was favorably commented upon. Hereafter the managers of the four clubs will meet on the first and third Tuesdays of each month, together with as many of the members who wish to be present, and transact necessary business.

A schedule will be made up immediately and submitted to a meeting to be held two

BUILDING ASSOCIATION LOANS.

Important Point of Interest to Borrowers De cided by a Chicago Judge.

CHICAGO, March 4 .- An important point to building association investors was raised before Judge Tuley to-day in the sait of Franklin B. Favor against the Arcanum Building, Loan and Homestead Association. Six months ago E. A. Mack, secretary of the company, fled with $6,000 of its money, and Mr. Favor, who is a stockholder, sned to wind the association up. William D. McKey was appointed re-ceiver, and this morning he raised the question as to how much borrowers should duestion as to how much borrowers should be allowed to come in and pay on the loans. A stockholder who owned $1,225 worth of stock had paid $123 interest on a loan. The receiver claimed that what he paid on the stock should not be applied in full on the principal of the loan, but that the present value of the stock, after payment of losses, should be credited to him and the borrower. of Players' League dates, and contained a | should be credited to him, and the borrower with the investor. It was claimed for the stockholders that they were entitled to credit for all installments paid on stock, regardless of the value of the stock. The court held that the borrower was entitled only to the credit of the value of the stock, but he was unable at this stage of ceedings to fix it.

Colored Chaplain Cowhided.

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 4.—At Claffin College to-day Prof. W. J. De Treville (white) cowhided J. N. Cardoza, the colored chaplain of the institution. The affair caused great excitement and threatened to develop into a race riot, which was, how-ever, suppressed by President Dunton.

THE CAPITAL CITY CLUB'S PLAN.

The Gun Club Leases a Park and Will Improve It on an Extensive Scale.

The Capital City Gun Club has located its park, and by May 1 will have one of the finest shooting grounds in the West. The organization has leased from the Citizens' Street-railway Company eight acres at Fairfield Park, just northwest of Crown Hill, and between three and four miles from the business portion of the city. It is level as a billiard-table, and a better site for such purpose could not have been selected. When the electric road is completed it can be reached in less than half an hour from the Union Depot. The club will fence the eight acres, erect an ampitheatre and club-house, and otherwise improve it handsomely. Had there heen such a park as the Capital City people been such a park as the Capital City people propose to have when the American Shooting Associations visited here recently the annual tournament of this big Eastern organization would not have been located at Lafayette, but would have been held here. This tournament occurs June 3, 4 and 5, and is one of the greatest events of the year in shooting circles. The association has a capital stock of $50,000, its purses are every one of them guaranteed, and crack shots from all over the country enter for the tournament. The Lafayette Gun Club's fine park struck the association's representative favorably, and he located the event there. He remarked when here to several members of the Capital City Gun Club that had there been a good park here he would have looked no further. The American field cup, which George Beck recently won from Fred Erb, will ar-rive to-morrow or Friday and be on exhibi-tion in the window of Horace A. Com-

BECK AND BANDLE MATCHED.

Cincinnati's Famous Wing Shot Will Shoot with the Indianapolis Champion.

Al Bandle, Cincinnati's crack trap-shot has accepted George Beck's challenge, and a match was arranged yesterday, to take place at the exposition grounds in this city, 2 o'clock. It is for $250 a side, one hundred live birds to the man-fifty pigeons and fifty English sparrows. Hurlingham rules to govern. The rise will be thirty yards, and the boundary eighty yards, and, as in all Hurlingham matches, five traps will be used. Bandle's acceptance was received yesterday, and in his letter he said he would like to include the American Field cup, just won by Mr. Beek. This is, of course, out of the question, as Fred Erb's only four challenges a year for the cup. Ladies will be admitted free, and the event will be one of great interest in trap-shooting circles because of the well-known skill of both Bandle and Beck in live-bird matches. The afternoon of Si. Patrick's day will doubtless see a big crowd at the exposition grounds.

A Project of President Ingalls. M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four lines, says that he wants to build a freight depot at Indianapolis, after the same pattern of the new freight depot at Cincinnati, which is said to be the most convenient and complete affair of this character in this country. It covers two blocks of ground, and required the vacating of one street; and here comes the trouble at Indianapolis. The Big Four company owns the ground between Delaware and Alabama streets, from Pogue's run to South street, which is ample in width for the proposed improvement, but the difficulty is to get the length, without closing Alabama street and reaching out to Virginia avenue. To compete successfully with the other roads the union freight station of the Big Four lines would needs be near the heart of the city, as all the other freight depots are. President Ingalls's idea is to build a depot in which all the business of the six roads comprising the Big Four system which center here can be taken care of.

Meeting of Contractors and Builders. The leading contractors and builders of the city met at the Builders' Exchange last night to complete their organization of a mutual benefit association. The meeting was private, no one being admitted who was not personally known to be either a contractor or builder. George W. Stanley, Charlton Eden and Thomas Morris, comprising the committee on constitution and by-laws appointed one week ago, submitted a code of laws which was adopted, after some amendments. The contractors are making every effort to keep their doings in these meetings from the public, but it is generally understood that their ultimate object is to organize against the eight-hour

Dental College Commencement. To-morrow night, at Plymouth Church, the graduating exercises of the Indiana Dental College will take place. There will be twenty-eight graduates, and the principal address will be made by Dr. J. R. Clayton, of Shelbyville, his subject being, "What has Dentistry Done for Civiliza-tion?" There will be a fine musical pro-gramme, in which Professor Newland, Miss Ida Sweenie, Miss Wilcox and others will take part. Mr. L. W. Rowe, the tenor recently with Rudolph Aronson's Opera Company, will sing, and Mr. E. H. Green will Advice to Mothers, give a violin solo. In the past five months, at the college clinics, over $700 worth of dental work has been done without charge for either labor or material.

Articles of Association. The Lafayette Union Railway Company was incorporated yesterday, with a capital stock of $150,000, in $50 shares. Directors: Brown Brockenbrough, Edgar V. Burt, Samuel C. Curtis, Samuel Moore, James Buck, Oliver C. Goldsmith, Cyrenius Johnson, John Levering, James Murdock, James M. Reynolds, William Ross, Walter J. Ball and John P. Gagen. The line is to be seven miles long, and is to run from a point southeast of Lafayette Junction to a point near Wide-water, north of the city. The Columbus Cigar Company was also incorporated, with a capital stock of $3,000, in

D. E. Snyder, secretary of the Metropolitan Police Aid Association, yesterday submitted to the board of directors, at the regular meeting, the first semi-annual statement of the condition of the association, and it was read to the night men of the police force at roll-call last evening. The association was organized Sept. 3, 1889, and incorporated Sept. 17 following. The body now has seventy-eight members. total receipts from the date of organization to Feb. 28, 1890, were $1,914.55, and the disbursements were $336.40, leaving a balance of $1,578.15 now on hand. Sick benefits, aggregating $308.50, have been paid to twelve members. The association, as will be seen, is in a prosperous condition and is proving of much benefit to the police

Asphalt for East Washington Street.

The proposition, long agitated, to construct an asphalt roadway out Washington street, from Alabama street to Irvington, is the plan be carried out, and are willing to contribute liberally for that purpose. Searching for a Missing Woman. Peter Wehrle, who lives at No. 737 South Meridian street, called at police headquarters last night and asked assistance in an effort to locate the whereabouts of his mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Wehrie, who is thought to be ill or to have died in this strengthening plaster. 25c.

She is a resident of Cincinnati, and arose from a bed of sickness at her home in that city and disappeared while in a state of delirium. It is thought that she wandered to Indianapolis and that she may have been foully dealt with here.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Frank L. Watson has succeeded C. D. Hoyle as manager of the Virginia-avenue "Later On" is the name of the play in which Hallen and Hart will appear at English's Monday night. The company playing at the Park this week is giving a pleasing performance of Gillette's comedy, "A Legal Wreck," and large audiences have been the rule thus far.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will close the lecture course at Plymouth Church to-night. Although this will be the twenty-third time Mrs. Livermore has spoken in this city, she will have a crowded audience. There are some good seats left. There are very few, if any, better impersonators of Irish characters than Murray and Murphy, the comedians who will begin a short engagement at English's Opera-house to-morrow night in "Our Irish Visit-ors." The latter is a mirth-provoking musical farce-comedy, with a great variety of nonsensical, but amusing, characteriza-tions, musical selections and comicalities. The principals are surrounded by a good company. At the Grand Opera-house, last night,

Miss Margaret Mather and her excellent company, presented W. S. Gilbert's "Gretchen," to a fine audience. This engagement has been one of the most notable of the season, and richly deserved the large patronage it has received. At the matinee to-day, "Romeo and Juliet" will be repeated, and the engagement will close with the "Honeymoon," to-night. Miss Mather is recognized as one of the foremost artistes of the profession, and the performances given by her company are of a high order

"The Fat Men's Club" attracted another large audience to English's Opera-house last night, and the second performance was no less amusing than the first. One of the best things in the performance is the impersonation of a child's character by Miss Edith Clark, who is an Indianapolis product. She was an amateur only a few years ago, but has developed into a clever performer, and is really the strongest card in the company with the exception possibly. the company with the exception, possibly, Stewart, the head of the combination Monday afternoon, March 17, beginning at | The closing performances will be given this afternoon and to-night.

Lounge-Manufacturers Will Not Sell. S. H. Collins, vice-president and treasurer of the United States Lounge-manufacturing Company, of this city, commenting, last night, on an article in the News concerning the probability of an English syndicate buying up the lounge-manufactur-ing and furniture factories of Indianapolis, said: "We are considering no proposition challenge was the first one filed, and he will, therefore, be given the first chance at the Indianapolis man, who has to accept out foundation, so far as we are concerned." One manufacturer, however, said he had been approached, some weeks ago, by the agent of a syndicate, and that he gave the latter an option on his plant. He thought the negotiations had fallen through, owing to several of the lounge-makers being unwilling to sell, or to make any price on their factories.

February's Work at the Postoffice. The February report of Postmaster Wallace shows 52 carriers employed at the Indianapolis postoffice, 11 of whom receive $600 per year, 12 $800 and 29 $1,000. One carrier makes five daily delivery trips, 15 four daily deliveries and 36 two daily deliveries. Three carriers make five daily collection trips, 15 four collections and 34 two daily collections. There were delivered last month 3,508 registered letters, 631,066 mail letters, 103,413 postal cards, and 277,942 pieces of miscellaneous printed matter. The collections were: Local letters, 48,587; mail letters, 297,746; local postal cards, 17,200; mail postal cards, 54,267; pieces of miscellaneous printed matter, 30,050. Total pieces handled during the month, 1,463,779.

Arrested on Two Charges.

Tillman Jacobs, twenty years of age, was arrested with a revolver on his person, last night, and a charge of carrying concealed weapons was registered against his name at the police station. Superintendent Travis had the charge amended, later, by the addition of a grand larceny allegation, as he thinks Jacobs is wanted for stealing iron and brass from a building in course of construction on South Missouri street.

Miss Willard Indorsed.

The executive committee of the Indiana W. C. T. U. met yesterday and passed the following resolution: "That we declare our loyalty to the National W. C. T. U., and to Miss Willard, as an able exponent of its principles." Miss Willard is to be invited to speak before the State convention of W. C. T. U., to be held in Terre Haute next October.

NOT A PIMPLE ON BABY Baby one year old. Bad with Eczema. Hair all gone. Scalp covered with eruptions. Cured by Cuticura. Hair splendid and not a pimple on him. CURED BY CUTICURA.

I cannot say enough in praise of the Cuticura Remedies. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. so bad with eezema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scall-head, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the Cuticura Remedies, and I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid, and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the Cuticura Remedies to mothers as the most speedy economical and sure ours for all skin disspeedy, economical and sure cure for all skin dis-eases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing. MRS. M. E. WOODSUM, Norway, Me. FEVER SORE EIGHT YEARS. I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured, by using the Cutieura Remedies, of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever eight years ago.
